CHAPTER-III

CONFIDENTIALITY & COMMUNICATION OF UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION

A. Role of Compliance Officer

1. The compliance officer shall be responsible under the overall supervision of the board of directors of the company, for compliance of policies, procedures, maintenance of records, monitoring adherence to the rules for the preservation of UPSI, monitoring of Trades as per the Code and implementation of the Code, maintaining records of the designated persons and their immediate relatives and any changes made in the list of designated persons and their immediate relatives and providing guidance and clarifications sought by designated persons regarding the Regulations and the Code.
2. The compliance officer shall report to the board of directors and shall provide reports to the Chairperson of the Audit Committee on an annual basis in respect of Trading in the Securities of the company by the designated persons and their immediate relatives, the trading plans and pre-clearance applications approved and rejected by the compliance officer.
3. The compliance officer shall discharge other functions and duties as prescribed in the Code and the Regulations.

B. Communication or procurement of unpublished price sensitive information.

1. No designated person (including his/her immediate relatives) should trade in the Securities of the company at any time while in possession of, or having access to, any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (UPSI).
2. Designated Persons are obliged to treat UPSI with due care and they have a duty to safeguard UPSI irrespective of the source of receipt of UPSI. Designated persons shall use UPSI for the specified purpose(s) only and it must not be used for any personal gain. No insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access, or procure or cause communication of any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, relating to the company or its Securities,

CHEMCRUX ENTERPRISES LIMITED - Code of Conduct to Regulate, Monitor and Report Trading by Designated Persons as per SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 to any person, except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

3. Notwithstanding anything contained in this regulation, an unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would—
 - a. entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the board of directors of the listed company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the company;
 - b. not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the board of directors of the listed company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the board of directors may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.
4. For purposes of sub-regulation (3), the board of directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the purpose of sub-regulation (3) and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

C. Preservation of the price sensitive information

1. The board of directors or head(s) of the organisation of every person required to handle unpublished price sensitive information shall ensure that a structured digital database is maintained containing the nature of unpublished price sensitive information and the names of such persons who have shared the information and also the names of such persons with whom information is shared under this regulation along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law where Permanent Account Number is not available. Such database shall not be outsourced and shall be maintained internally with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database.
2. The board of directors or head(s) of the organisation of every person required to handle unpublished price sensitive information shall ensure that the structured digital database is preserved for a period of not less than eight years after completion of the relevant transactions and in the event of receipt of any information from the Board regarding any investigation or enforcement proceedings, the relevant information in the structured digital database shall be preserved till the completion of such proceedings.
3. Insider shall maintain the confidentiality of all unpublished price sensitive information. He/she should not pass such information to any person including the other insider.
4. Need to Know: Unpublished Price Sensitive Information shall be handled on a “Need to Know” basis, i.e., such information shall be shared with any person including the other insider except where such information is required to be passed for legitimate purposes and for performance of duties or discharge of legal obligation.
5. Limited access to confidential information: Files containing unpublished price sensitive information, or any such related confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password etc.
6. Chinese Wall: To prevent the misuse of UPSI, the Company shall follow the Chinese Wall approach and separate those departments which routinely have access to such information, considered as inside areas from other departments, considered as public areas. People in the inside areas shall not be allowed to communicate any UPSI to anyone in the public areas, except as may be required on a need-to-know basis, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations or for Legitimate Purpose in accordance with the Code and the Regulations.

The Company shall have a process for how and when people are brought 'inside' on sensitive transactions. Individuals should be made aware of the duties and responsibilities attached to the receipt of Inside Information, and the liability that attaches to misuse or unwarranted use of such information.

CHAPTER IV

RESRICTION ON TRADING BY INSIDERS

A. Trade in securities when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information

1. No insider shall trade in securities that are listed or proposed to be listed on a stock exchange when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information:

Explanation –When a person who has traded in securities has been in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, his trades would be presumed to have been motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his possession.

Provided that the insider may prove his innocence by demonstrating the circumstances including the following: –

- (i) the transaction is an off-market inter-se transfer between insiders who were in possession of the same unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of regulation 3 and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision.

Provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained under sub-regulation (3) of regulation 3 of these regulations.

Provided further that such off-market trades shall be reported by the insiders to the company within two working days. Every company shall notify the particulars of such trades to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed within two trading days from receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information;

- (ii) the transaction was carried out through the block deal window mechanism between persons who were in possession of the unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of regulation 3 and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision;

Provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained by either person under sub-regulation (3) of regulation 3 of these regulations.

- (iii) the transaction in question was carried out pursuant to a statutory or regulatory obligation to carry out a bona fide transaction.

- (iv) the transaction in question was undertaken pursuant to the exercise of stock options in respect of which the exercise price was pre-determined in compliance with applicable regulations.

- (v) in the case of non-individual insiders: –

- a. the individuals who were in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision-making individuals were not in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information when they took the decision to trade; and

CHEMCRUX ENTERPRISES LIMITED - Code of Conduct to Regulate, Monitor and Report Trading by Designated Persons as per SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015

- b. appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that these regulations are not violated, and no unpublished price sensitive information was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached;
 - (vi) the trades were pursuant to a trading plan set up in accordance with regulations.
2. In the case of connected persons, the onus of establishing, that they were not in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, shall be on such connected persons and in other cases, the onus would be on the Board. The Board may specify such standards and requirements, from time to time, as it may deem necessary for the purpose of these regulations.

B. Trading Plan

1. Insider may formulate a trading plan and the same shall be approved by compliance officer after evaluation with regard to the regulations and shall be notified to the stock exchange.
2. By doing so, the possession of unpublished price sensitive information when a trade under a trading plan is actually executed would not prohibit the execution of such trades that he/she had pre-decided even before the unpublished price sensitive information came into existence.
3. Such trading plan shall: –
 - a. not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
 - b. not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
 - c. entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months
 - d. not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence
 - e. set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
 - f. not entail trading in securities for market abuse.
4. The compliance officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of these regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.

Provided that pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan. Provided further that trading window norms and restrictions on contra trade shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

5. The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

CHEMCRUX ENTERPRISES LIMITED - Code of Conduct to Regulate, Monitor and Report Trading by Designated Persons as per SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015

Provided that the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced if any unpublished price sensitive information in possession of the insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation and in such event the compliance officer shall confirm that the commencement ought to be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information so as to avoid a violation of sub-regulation (1) of regulation 4.

C. Trading Window

1. The Designated persons and their immediate relatives can trade in Company shares only during the trading window.
2. The trading window shall be closed when Compliance Officer determines that designated person or a class of designated person are expected to be in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.
3. The Compliance Officer shall take all the reasonable steps to ensure the designated persons and/or Insiders are informed in advance about the closing and opening of trading window. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates.
4. The trading period, i.e., the trading period of the stock exchanges, called trading window, is available for trading in the Company's securities.
5. The trading window shall be made applicable from the end of every quarter till 48 hours after declaration of audited/ unaudited financial results. Trading Window for events other than financial results, shall be closed for the period as may be determined by the Compliance Officer of the Company from time to time. The Compliance Officer after considering various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, shall decide the timing for re-opening of the trading window, however in any event it shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.
6. During closure of trading window, Designated Persons (and their immediate relatives) shall not trade in the securities of the Company.
7. All Designated Persons (and their immediate relatives) shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only in a valid trading window and shall not deal in any transaction in the securities of the Company during the periods when the trading window is closed, as referred above or during any other period as may be specified by the Company from time to time.
8. The trading window restrictions mentioned in sub-clause (1) shall not apply in respect of - (a) transactions specified in clauses (i) to (iv) and (vi) of the proviso to sub-regulation (1) of regulation 4 of Regulations and in respect of a pledge of shares for a bonafide purpose such as raising of funds, subject to pre-clearance by the compliance officer and compliance with the respective regulations made by the Board; (b) transactions which are undertaken in accordance with respective regulations made by the Board such as acquisition by conversion of warrants or debentures, subscribing to rights issue, further public issue, preferential allotment or tendering of shares in a buy-back offer, open offer, delisting offer or transactions which are undertaken through such other mechanism as may be specified by the Board from time to time.

CHEMCRUX ENTERPRISES LIMITED - Code of Conduct to Regulate, Monitor and Report Trading by Designated Persons as per SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015

9. In case of Employee Stock Option Plans (ESOPs), exercise of option may be allowed during the period when the Trading Window is closed. However, sale of shares allotted on exercise of ESOPs shall not be allowed when the Trading Window is closed.

D. Pre-Clearance of trades:

1. All Designated persons of the Company who intend to trade, on their behalf and / or on behalf of their dependent family members, in the securities of the Company and where the market value of shares intended to be dealt exceeds Rs. 10 Lakhs (Ten Lakhs) per trade should pre-clear the transactions as per the pre-clearing procedure as described hereunder:
 - a. Designated Person (and/or their immediate relative Specified Person) who proposes to execute trade in Securities of the Company shall submit an application duly filled and signed to the Compliance Officer. The format of application is annexed as Annexure 1. It is clarified that the designated person should submit the application on behalf of his/her immediate relative(s), for trades proposed to be executed by the immediate relative(s).
 - b. Prior to approving any trades, the Compliance Officer shall seek declarations to the effect that the applicant for pre-clearance is not in possession of any UPSI. The format of undertaking is annexed as Annexure 2. She/He shall also have regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.
 - c. The Compliance Officer shall approve / reject pre-clearance application and give order in Annexure 3.
 - d. Designated Person shall execute pre-cleared trade within seven trading days from approval and shall report his trade details to Compliance Officer Annexure 4 within two trading days from the trade. In case non-trading, concerned person shall intimate the same to the compliance officer within 2 (two) Trading Days after the expiry of 7 (seven) Trading Days from the date of pre-clearance, Designated Person shall report his decision of non-trading to Compliance Officer in Annexure 4.
 - e. In case of failure in executing trade within seven trading days, Designated Person shall be required to take fresh pre-clearance for the trades to be executed in Annexure 1.
2. Designated Person who is permitted to trade shall not execute a contra trade within next six months from previous transaction. Provided that this shall not be applicable for trades pursuant to exercise of stock options. If contra trade is executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Securities and Exchange Board of India for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund.

The Compliance Officer may grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing without violating the Regulations.
